

The Coaching for Everyone

Scholars Program

Program overview

The Scholars Program provides high-quality, culturally-relevant coach training and certification that accelerates learning and transforms the personal, professional, and social lives of BIPOC professionals.

It includes:

-  Multi-day virtual training intensives (Thu - Sun) with live BIPOC facilitator(s).
-  Free one-year membership to the Coaches of Color Network (COCN) - an exclusive network of hundreds of BIPOC professionals and allies, and an extensive library of coaching resources.
-  A highly personal, supportive, and interactive experience.
-  Access to top tier assessments and other support resources to start and elevate your coaching practice.

Cost

$7,900 for a coach training and certification experience that is valued at over $20,000.

Who's eligible?
Working professionals
who identify as BIPOC

UNLOCK NEW PATHS TO SUCCESS
BY BECOMING A CERTIFIED COACH!

Through the Scholars Program, you'll accelerate your leadership skills and discover ways to navigate complex situations, unlock innovation, and overcome limiting beliefs that may be holding you back from reaching your full potential.

Be part of a national movement to increase representation and access across the coaching industry!

Apply Now

Coaching for Everyone (CFE) is a 501c3 non-profit on a mission to improve the lives of traditionally underserved and under-resourced BIPOC populations through increased access to high-impact coaching.

We partner with several industry-leading ICF-approved coach training partners to deliver an exceptional training experience.

What You Can Expect

- 1 Review the Scholars Program page to learn about the program and our coach training partnerships to review the training curriculum.
- 2 Apply for the Scholars Program. We will review your application and provide a status update within 2 - 3 weeks of submission.
- 3 If are accepted into the program, you will receive a welcome packet and checklist outlining actions you'll need to take to prepare for the program.
- 4 Attend a mandatory CFE orientation on what you can expect, ask questions, and meet members of your cohort! You'll also be added to the Coaching of Color Network (COCN) to start your complimentary one-year membership.
- 5 You'll receive a packet from our coach training partner with commitments you'll need to complete. You'll also participate in a mandatory orientation to learn what you can expect prior to, during, and after the coach training.
- 6 Attend multiple three- to four-day training intensives. Led by a live facilitator, these virtual all-day sessions generally occur Thursday through Sunday during the scheduled week.
- 7 Complete post-work following the training, including peer work, mentor coaching, webinars, and other self-study projects.
- 8 Build and evolve your coaching practice by networking and growing with other members of the COCN.

Collectively, these steps take a minimum of 90 days to complete (as the ICF requires 90 days from the first mentor coaching session to the last session), but most scholars take between 3 to 6 months to complete all certification requirements. Once you've completed 386+ hours of coach training, you'll be considered a Certified Professional Coach and will be well on your way to International Coaching Federation (ICF) credentialing.